

Non-Cartesian Philosophies of Mind: Early Modern Alternatives

University of Oulu, 23-24 May 2023

Andrea Christofidou (University of Oxford): “Descartes’ Metaphysics of Mind: A Significant Turn”

Ruth Boeker (University College Dublin): “Isaac Watts and Catharine Trotter Cockburn on the Power to Think”

Rodolfo Garau (Universität Hamburg): “Gassendi’s Second Thought: The Lasting Influence of the Polemic with Descartes in the Development of Gassendi’s Understanding of the Intellect”

Jordan Lavender (Purdue University): “Thought and Sensation as Directio in the Seventeenth Century: The Case of Thomas Bonarte (1612/13– ~1670)”

Laura Moretti (Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne/Ca’ Foscari University of Venice): “Robert Desgabets Entering the Malebranche’s Empiricist Legacy”

Ericka Tucker (Marquette University): “Material Minds: Spinoza and the Other Descartes”

Deborah Brown (University of Queensland): “The Matter of Thinking Matter: Descartes and Willis”

Lena Kreymann (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin): “Leibniz on Identifying Other Minds” Domenica Romagni (Colorado State University): “‘The circle... a true image of the created mind’: Kepler’s Geometrical Philosophy of Mind”

Olivia L. Branscum (University of Oklahoma): “Panpsychism and Vitalism in the Philosophy of Anne Conway: Interpretive and Historical-Philosophical Implications”

Philippe Hamou (Sorbonne Université): “Of mental substances in Locke’s Essay: subsistence, spatiality, activity”

Julia Borcharding (University of Cambridge/LMU Munich): “Nature’s Poetry and Humanity’s Artifice: Cavendish on the Powers of the Poetic Imagination”

Workshop organized by Oberto Marrama and Vili Lähteenmäki, University of Oulu.