

SEPTEMBER 29TH TO OCTOBER 2ND, 2013

WHAT COULD WE DO AND WHAT OUGHT WE TO DO?

CALL FOR APPLICATION

DEADLINE: JULY 1ST, 2013

The Tübingen International Summer School 2012 is a joint venture of the FORUM SCIENTIARUM and the Werner Reichardt Centre for Integrative Neuroscience (CIN).

Further information:

www.forum-scientiarum.uni-tuebingen.de/tiss

TOPIC

This year's summer school will focus on the possibilities and perils of neuroenhancement from the perspectives of neurosciences, medicine and philosophy. We want to explore what could be achieved through neuroenhancements in theory, what can be done already, and where to draw the line.

FACULTY

- PD Dr. Jens Clausen
- PD Dr. Markus Fendt
- Dr. Dr. Andreas Franke
- Stephan Schleim, Ph.D.

HOW TO APPLY

The summer school is aimed at advanced undergraduate students and graduate students working in neurobiology, neuroscience, psychology, philosophy, and other relevant disciplines.

Board and lodging (in double rooms) will be provided for. There are no participation fees to be paid, although traveling costs and beverages have to be covered by the participants.

For your application please do submit:

- Brief cover letter
- CV
- Filled out application form:
