

Epistemic and Practical Normativity Workshop

University of Seville, 20-21 February 2024

Program

Tuesday, 20th

9:30-10:45 Antti Kauppinen
(University of Helsinki):
“Norms for Questions”

10:45-11:15 Coffee Break

11:15-12:30 Roman Heil
(University of Frankfurt):
“Legalizing Epistemic Justification”

12:35-13:50 Agnès Baehni
(University of Geneva):
“Why We Cannot Gnostically Wrong”

13:50-16:00 Lunch

16:17-15:00 Jaakko Hirvelä
(University of Helsinki):
“Don’t Just Stick to What You Know”

17:15-17:45 Coffee Break

17:45-19:00 Lola M. Vizuete & Dani Pino
(University of Seville):
“Understanding Hermeneutical Injustice”

20:30 Dinner

Wednesday, 21th

9:30-10:45 Michael Hannon (Nottingham) &
Elise Woodard (KCL):
“Epistemic Norms: What are They Good For?”

10:45-11:15 Coffee Break

11:15-12:30 Matthew Vermaire
(University of Glasgow):
“The Non-Ethics of Belief”

12:35-13:50 Tsung-Hsing Ho
(National Chung Cheng University):
“Belief as Emotion”

13:50-16:00 Lunch

16:17-15 Lilith Mace (University of Glasgow):
“The Effects of Practical Risk on the Regulative Role of Doubt in Inquiry”

17:15-17:45 Coffee Break

17:45-19:00 Miriam Schleifer McCormick
(University of Richmond):
“Wonder With Impunity: Why It Is (Almost)
Never Wrong to Wonder”

Venue:

Aula de Grados, Facultad de Filosofía, Universidad de Sevilla, C/Camilo José Cela, s/n. Sevilla.

Organizing committee:

Javier González de Prado Salas (UNED): jgonzalezdeprado@sof.uned.es

Jesús Navarro (University of Seville): jnr@us.es

Michele Palmira (Complutense University of Madrid): mpalmira@ucm.es

Local committee (University of Seville):

Daniel Barbarrusa

Alicia Gámez

Ignacio Gómez Ledo

Juan Manuel Márquez Poyatos

Darío Ramírez Vázquez

Funding:

NANORIN Project: “The Nature and Normativity of Inquiry”
(Ref: PID2021-123938NB-I00), awarded by the Spanish
Ministerio de Ciencia, Innovación y Universidades

