May 31 - June 1, 2024
University of South Carolina

Keynote Speakers:

Matthew Boyle (University of Chicago)

Katherine Dunlop (University of Texas, Austin)

Host:

Tyke Nunez (University of South Carolina)

This year's SNAKS conference is receiving support from the University of South Carolina Department of Philosophy and the North American Kant Society.

We welcome contributions on all topics of Kantian scholarship. Please submit abstracts of 750 to 1,000 words (excluding bibliography). Talks should be suitable for a 40 to 45-minute presentation.

Submission instructions: Submissions should be prepared for anonymous review and include a word count. Please supply author name, affiliation, and contact information in a separate file. Graduate students should note this status in the contact information. Please send submissions to ImmanuelKant600@gmail.com.

The best graduate student paper will receive a $200 stipend and be eligible for the Markus Herz Prize. Scholars from underrepresented groups in the discipline and graduate students are especially encouraged to apply.

Papers already read or accepted at other NAKS study groups or meetings may not be submitted. Presenters must be members of NAKS in good standing.
