

The Fifth Annual Stanford Ancient Metaphysics and Epistemology Conference

All times PDT

Talks will take place at Stanford University (Friday sessions will be in Main Quad Building 70, Room 72A; Saturday/Sunday sessions in Building 90, Room 92Q)

All sessions are also available via Zoom—please register here:

<https://stanford.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJcvdOitrDovH9YjgbjjVg2CdNM1BGOTvUEk>

Friday, February 9th

13:00-13:15 – Opening Remarks

13:15-15:15 – Mariska Leunissen (UNC-Chapel Hill), “Maternal expertise and gendered knowledge in Aristotle's gynecology”

15:15-15:30 – Break

15:30-17:30 – Thomas Slabon (South Florida), “The Value Question in Ancient Metaphysics”

18:30 Conference Dinner

Saturday, February 10th

9-9:30 Breakfast

9:30-11:30 – Jacob Klein (Colgate), “Knowledge and Belief in Early Stoicism”

11:30-13:00 Lunch

13:00-15:00 – Landon Hobbs (Zephyr Institute), “On the Fourfold Division of Beings in Categories 2”

15-15:30 Break

15:30-17:30 – Christian Pfeiffer (Toronto), “Diaphorai in H.2”

18:30 Conference Dinner

Sunday, February 11th

9-9:30 Breakfast

9:30-11:30 – Katy Meadows (Indiana-Bloomington), “Did Plato Use Plato’s Test?”

11:30-13:00 Lunch

13:00-15:00 – Tim Clarke (Berkeley), “Persuasion and Compulsion in Metaphysics Gamma”

This conference is sponsored by the Towards Citizenship Fund, the Purtil Fund, the Stanford Humanities Center – Ethics and Politics Ancient and Modern (EPAM) Workshop, and the Stanford Philosophy Department.