

Call for Papers:

Art Style, Art & Culture International Magazine, an online and peer-reviewed magazine devoted to art and culture, invites the submission of extended essays and scholarly articles.

Art Style Magazine invites submissions for articles that explore the diverse and dynamic intersections of art, culture, and society. We welcome papers that critically engage with the role of art in shaping socio-cultural, political, and historical contexts and their impact on the observer and environment. We encourage interdisciplinary contributions that investigate various forms of artistic expression, including but not limited to art history, art education, aesthetics, communication science, design, architecture, music, sound studies, and image science. Submissions should address how art transcends cultural boundaries and serves as a universal language, reflecting and shaping contemporary urban life. Authors should consider the significance of art and aesthetic experiences within the broader context of social sciences, arts, and humanities. The magazine is committed to promoting social inclusion, sustainable development, and decoloniality, and we look forward to your contributions that deepen our understanding of the reciprocal influence between art and culture.

Submissions should align with the magazine's aims and scope, focusing on critical analysis and presenting new perspectives on the various interpretations of art and its communication dynamics. Potential submission topics include, but are not limited to:

- The interplay of artistic, cultural, and political elements in global contexts
- The role of art in advocating democratic principles
- Innovative developments addressing local and global social responsibilities
- The impact of arts and technology on culture and how innovation shapes creative expression
- The significance of art as a representation of contemporary ideals for sustainable development
- Theoretical and methodological approaches to delve into questions about art, design, and architecture
- Urban social contexts and the potential impact of art and design as social phenomena
