

SPAN 2025
FIRST ANNUAL MEETING
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY IN ST. LOUIS
MAY 1-3, 2025

THE SOCIETY FOR PHILOSOPHY
& NEUROSCIENCE

CALL FOR PAPERS

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 1, 2025

PAPER SUBMISSIONS:

Extended abstract that is 250-800 words (footnotes, bibliography, and figures not included).

Each abstract must include a word count in the main text file.

Please remove all self-references to permit anonymous review.

Presentations should be no more than 25 minutes.

Although submissions for philosophy and neuroscience are handled separately, SPAN 2025 will feature joint sessions including both philosophers and neuroscientists.

Submit papers in PDF form through the portal links on our website:

PHILANDNEURO.COM/SUBMISSIONS

Selections will be based on quality, relevance to issues at the intersection of philosophy and neuroscience, topics in neuroscience relevant to philosophical inquiry, and other program considerations.

We may consider your paper to be presented during our poster session.

If you have questions, please contact: socphilandneuro@gmail.com

INVITED SESSION SCHEDULE TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON

SPAN 2024 is sponsored by:
The Philosophy-Neuroscience-Psychology Program
with support from the Department of Neuroscience
& the Psychological and Brain Sciences
