INPP 2025, Bibliotheca Albertina, Leipzig – Scientific Program

This conference has been CME-certified (21 credits)

Thursday, 29th May 2025

Opening (Lecture hall)

12.00 – 13.00

Welcome to the conference

Peter Schönknecht (Leipzig), Congress President

Opening remarks

Prof. Dr. Jens Eilers, Prorektor für Exzellenzentwicklung, Universität Leipzig

Corinna Klinger, Psychiatriekoordinatorin, Stadt Leipzig

Presidential Lecture

Social impact on changing paradigms in psychiatry research

Andreas Heinz (Berlin)

Thursday, 29th May 2025

Parallel symposia A (Lecture hall)

13.00–14.30

Symposium: Delusion – revisited

Chair: Peter Schönknecht (Leipzig)

Delusions as seeming-based beliefs, Chenwei Nie (Warwick)

Non-Doxastic Delusions: Examining the Phenomenology of Psychiatric Delusions, Oliver Clark (Bristol)

The conditionale - a specific feature of delusion? Hannelore Findeis (Leipzig)

15.00 – 16.30

Symposium: Epistemic Injustice in Mental Healthcare

Chair: Lisa Bortolotti (Birmingham)

Young People with Psychosis at the Intersection of Identities, Matthew Broome (Birmingham) and Jodie Russell (Birmingham)

Epistemic Injustice and Experience of People Living with Dementia, Lara Calabrese (Bologna)

Ameliorating epistemic injustice with digital health technologies, Elisabetta Lalumera (Bologna)

17.00 – 18.30

Symposium: General psychopathology – state of the art

Chair: Peter Schönknecht (Leipzig)

Validity, Structure and Subjectivity of the Psychiatric Diagnostic Interview, Julie Nordgaard (Copenhagen)

The Foreign as a Limit Situation, Thomas Fuchs (Heidelberg)

Phenomenology of the Labyrinth and its Significance for Understanding Manneristic Art and the Schizophrenic World, Otto Dörr (Santiago de Chile)

This conference has been CME-certified (21 credits).

Thursday, 29th May 2025

Parallel symposia B (Fürstenzimmer)

13.00 – 14:30

Symposium Models of Mental Health

Chair: Anna Bergqvist (Oxford)

Building mental universes from (re)presentations, Arnaud Plagnol (Paris)

The mind's blueprint: mental health, rational ability, and design, Fabian Hundertmark (Bielefeld)

Mental suffering as a knowledge-problem? A critical take at the (socializing) role of psychoeducation in mental health care, Sander Bisselink (Nijmegen)

15.00 – 16:30

Symposium Stigma

Chair: Silvia Krumm (Leipzig)

The ethical conflicts of autonomy: assessing the validity of suicide prevention, Paulin Ulbrich (Leipzig)

Stigma as an actant in the history of psychiatric disorder, Miriam Solomon (Philadelphia)

The disattribution-unavoidability account of insanity defense, Eisuke Sakakibara (Tokyo)

17.00 – 18.30

Measuring of Symptoms

Chair: Peter Zachar (Montgomery)

Can we (still) imagine a psychopathology? Jeffrey Bedrick (Philadelphia)

Conceptual advances in measuring empathy, Werdie van Staden (Pretoria)

A vulnerable aspect of spatial cognitive development inferred from psychopathology of schizophrenic ambivalence, Kyoko Sumida (Tokyo)

This conference has been CME-certified (21 credits).

Friday, 30ᵗʰ May 2025

Parallel symposia A (Lecture hall)

8.30 – 10.00

Personality Disorder - Concepts and Data

Chair: Marcin Moskalewicz (Poznan)

The fluctuating role of personality disorder in psychopathology, Peter Zachar (Montgomery)

Political philosophy of neurodiversity, Ewa Winiarczyk (Warsaw)

Split identities and identity development in a three-generation lasting sect. Colonia Dignidad in Chile, Niels Biedermann (Santiago de Chile)

10.30 – 12.00

Classification in Psychopathology 1

Chair: John Sadler (Dallas)

Diagnoses as historical artefacts. Schizophrenia again, Stephen Rosenman (Sydney)
On the nature of diagnostic criteria in psychiatry, Georg Repnikov (Sydney)

Conceptualizing epistemic vices in psychiatric diagnosticians, John Sadler (Dallas)

13.00 – 14.30

Philosophy of Psychotherapy

Chair: Werdie van Staden (Pretoria)

From nomothetic manualization to idiographic conceptualization. Or Aristotle on cognitive-behavioral therapy, Konrad Banicki (Krakow)

Eidetic insights into borderline temporality - Humans vs AI, Marcin Moskalewicz and Anna Sterna (Poznan)

Darwinism, Memory, and the Origin of Psychoanalysis, Heinrich Baumgart (Berlin)

This conference has been CME-certified (21 credits).

15.00– 16.30

Delusion – feature or phenomenon?

Chair: Michael Musalek (Vienna)

Delusion and madness in feature films, Martin Poltrum (Vienna)

Delusions in crises - Psychopathological and socialaesthetic perspectives, Michael Musalek (Vienna)

How philosophy of German idealism may have founded a modern concept of delusion, Peter Schönknecht (Leipzig)

17.00 – 18.30

Epistemics and diagnosis

Chair: Hannelore Findeis (Leipzig)

Epistemic Injustice in Psychiatry: An Autoethnographic Exploration of Patient Exclusion from Diagnosis, Kala Dobosz (Krakow)

Duality of the relationship to the world, duality of the healthcare relationship, Laura Kipp and Bernard Pachoud (Paris)

Talking is silver, listening is gold. Phenomenological Psychopathology in dialogue with epistemic injustice, Lea Nickel (Magdeburg)

This conference has been CME-certified (21 credits).

Friday, 30ᵗʰ May 2025

Parallel symposia B (Fürstenzimmer)

8.30 – 10.00

Intentionality revisited

Chair: Peter Zachar (Montgomery)

Can affordance bring meaning to anomalous experiences? The case of autism, Janko Nešić (Belgrade)

What is it like to be living? - Existential and psychiatric reflections on Ikigai and mortality through Ikiru and living, Hiroshi Ihara (Koshigaya)

Understanding folk metaphysical assumptions in philosophy of psychiatry, John Sadler (Dallas)

10.30 – 12.00

Ideal Types in Psychopathology

Chair: Martin Poltrum (Vienna)

Rethinking aphantasia: a genuine difference but not a disorder, Georgina Brighouse (Liverpool)

Getting unreal: historical transitions of hysteria and the construction of an ideal type of psychopathology, Klaus Leferink (Berlin)

PTSD thought of as a dislocated joint, Lotte Dijkhuis (Amsterdam)

13.00 – 14.30

Language and Person

Chair: Michael Laney (Dallas)

Client agency in the time of the DSM: consideration for therapists, Parker Rose (Orange)

'That's just your eating disorder talking': The ontological implications of language in the conceptualisation and treatment of eating disorders, Lewis Wynn (Cambridge)

Fragile: handle with Care. A philosophical analysis of the role of persons with lived experience in mental health care, Christiano Bacchi (Berlin) and Giacomo Piselli Fioroni (Berlin)

This conference has been CME-certified (21 credits).

15.00 – 16.30

Classification in Psychopathology 2

Chair: Lotte Dijkhuis (Amsterdam)

Symptom-oriented psychiatry: a new approach and view to psychopathology, Jian Hu (New Hampshire)

Pragmatic encroachment in psychiatric diagnosis, Michael Laney (Dallas)

Fictionalism about self-illness distinction ambiguity: the self-illness distinction as a useful fiction, Anna Golova (Oxford)

17.00 – 18.30

Ontological status

Chair: Klaus Leferink (Berlin)

Psychiatric disorder as being or having? The ontological status of psychiatric disorders and patient experience, Enise I. Incesoy (Berlin) and Zümrüt Sen (Jena)

Adaptive irrational worry, Ed Armitage (Aarhus)

Freedom and constraint in psychiatry: the role of discourse and narratives, Guenda Bernegger (Manno)

This conference has been CME-certified (21 credits).

This conference has been CME-certified (21 credits).

Saturday, 31st May 2025

9.00 – 10:00 (Lecture hall)

Embodiment of Mind I

Chair: Konrad Banicki (Heidelberg)

Embodied mind as a pharmacological target, Stefan Jerotic (Belgrade)

Organism-environment vis-à-vis schizoidism/syntony-ambiance coupling Mauricio Viotti Daker (Belo Horizonte)

9.00 – 10:00 (Fürstenzimmer)
Embodiment of Mind II

Chair: Vuk Vuković (Belgrade)

The Constitution of the Sense of Body and the Triple Network model: A Phenomenological hypothesis of Schizophrenia grounded on Synchronicity, Camilo Enrique Sánchez Sánchez (Poznan)

From Prescription to Lived Experience: The Clinician's Role as Embodied Guide, Vuk Vuković (Belgrade)

10.30 – 12:00 Parallel A (Lecture hall)

Neurocognition and Ethics

Chair: Stefan Jerotic (Belgrade)

Reconceptualizing Hannah Arendt's Vita Activa in the Context of Mental Health Support, Keijin Yamamura (Kyoto City)

Calling for Support, Caught by the System: A Philosophical Reflection, Maryam Khan (Fort Worth)

Implementing Person-Centred Interventions in Public Health Care Systems: Understanding Facilitators and Barriers to Generalising Effective Service User Policy in UK Perinatal Services, Anna Bergqvist (Oxford)

10:30 – 12:00 Parallel B (Fürstenzimmer)

Computational Psychiatry

Chair: Hiroshi Ihara (Saitama)

Emotional support without emotions: can ChatGPT be a good therapist? Aleksandra E. Kornienko (Vienna)

"Minimal self" locked into a model: exploring the prospect of formalizing intentionality in schizophrenia, Marianne D. Broeker (Oxford)

This conference has been CME-certified (21 credits).

Two explanations of experts by experience in psychiatry: epistemic abilities or epistemic differences, Mitsue Sugimoto (Tokyo)

Closing remarks

Peter Schönknecht, Werdie van Staden, Anna Bergquist, Peter Zachar (INPP)

This conference has been CME-certified (21 credits).