

WORKSHOP:

PHILOSOPHY OF MEDICINE, BROADLY CONSTRUED

DECEMBER 5-6, 2025
ROCKEFELLER 106

Ian Peebles | Arizona State
Sara Purinton | Princeton
Jada Wiggleton-Little | Ohio State
Laurenz Casser | Sheffield
Marlene Berke | MIT
Clarissa Busch | Illinois Tech
Tiina Rosenqvist | Dartmouth

Sponsored by the Dartmouth Society of Fellows,
the Ethics Institute,
and the Department of Philosophy.

FRIDAY DEC 5

3PM Laurenz Casser | Sheffield

“‘Illusory Pain’ in the Thermal Grill Illusion”

4PM Sara Purinton | Princeton

“Socializing Impairment”

SATURDAY DEC 6

10AM Tiina Rosenqvist | Dartmouth

“Chronic Pain, Etiology, and Medical Gaslighting”

11AM Ian Peebles | Arizona State

“Race, Well-being and (Enhancements) of Cognition”

{12PM Lunch Break}

2PM Jada Wiggleton-Little | Ohio State

“Too Much Desert: Judgments about Deservingness and Pain”

3PM Clarissa Busch | Illinois Tech

“Making Evidence: Epistemic Issues with Synthetic Data in Medicine”

4PM Marlene Berke | MIT

“Probing Intuitive Theories of Pain” (Flash Talk)