

Funded by:

Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft

23./24.01.26

Hosted by:

UNIVERSITÄT
LEIPZIG

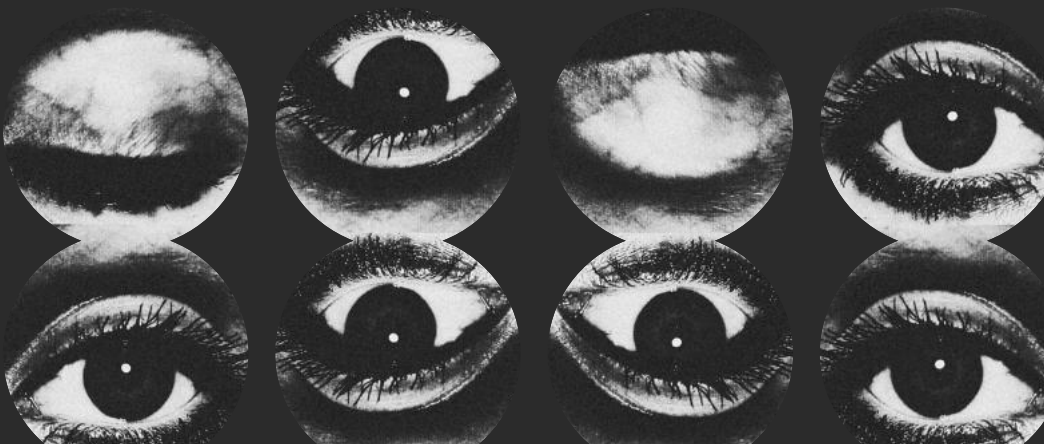

Conference:

SELF-CONSCIOUSNESS IN KANT AND POST-KANTIANISM

Organization:

Jens Pier and Andrea Kern

Venue: Villa Tillmanns
Wächterstraße 30
04104 Leipzig

	Friday, 23 January 2026		Saturday, 24 January 2026
09:00–09:15	Welcome
09:15–09:30	Introduction	09:00–10:30	Jens Pier: “‘The Unity of Reason is the Unity of the System’: Kant on Self-Consciousness as the Form of Philosophy”
09:30–11:00	G. Anthony Bruno: “From the ‘I Think’ to the ‘I Act’: Fichte on Kant’s Incomplete Insight”
11:00–11:15	Coffee break	10:30–10:45	Coffee break
11:15–12:45	Matthew Boyle: “Three Kantian Theses about Apperception”	10:45–12:15	Tobias Rosefeldt: “The Given Self – from Kant to Fichte”
12:45–13:30	Lunch break	12:15–13:00	Lunch break
13:30–15:00	Eliza Starbuck Little: “The Apperceptive I, the Empirical Self, and Other Minds”	13:00–14:30	Karen Koch: “Self-Consciousness and Object Constitution in Early Schelling”
15:00–16:30	Thomas Oehl: “Self-Consciousness and the Other: Hegel and Rosenzweig”	14:30–16:00	Dina Emundts: “Self-Consciousness in the Experience of Beauty in Kant and Hegel”
16:30–16:45	Coffee break	16:00–16:15	Coffee break
16:45–18:15	Julia Peters: “Hegel on mental pain, bodily pain, and the structure of the ‘I’”	16:15–17:45	Andrea Kern: “Kierkegaard on the Limits of Practical Self-Consciousness and Faith”
19:00	Conference dinner			