

8:45-9 [greetings, welcomes]	ROOM 1	ROOM 2
9:00	OFFICIAL WELCOMES (UNESCO PROF. FETHI MANSOURI, HEAD CCG)
9:15-10:15	KEYNOTE, William H. F. Altman, "On Post- Post-War thought"
10:30-11:30	Weimar and beyond Brown (Deakin): Crisis in Weimar Jeffs (Deakin): Hegel in Dark Times	Weimar and beyond Potter (Latrobe): The Spengler Effect Vassilopoulos (Latrobe): Death and Vision in 'being-with': Heidegger's philosophical Dasein as a 'response' to history
11:45-12:45	Weimar and beyond Franke (Waikato): The 'Secret Germany' revisited: Karl Wolfskehl's political correspondence in exile McDowell (Darwin): Scheler's Radical Pacifism	Philosophy in academe after 1914 Bloor (Latrobe): analytic-continental divide Prof. Reynolds (Deakin): Philosophy and politics - philosophy or politics: Two ostensible trajectories of philosophy post WW1 and their co-imbriation
	LUNCH	LUNCH
1:45-2:45	KEYNOTE, Prof. Miguel Vatter (UNSW) "War, Peace and Cosmopolitanism in Cohen and Rosenzweig"
3-4	Paula Ziodo-Oses (LSE): Isaiah Berlin's Dilemma* Brennan (Bond): World War One and European Mythology in the Thought of Jan Patočka	Marxism and post-Marxism after 1914 Boucher (post-marxism) Pilapil (2 nd generation Frankfurt School*)
4-15-5:15	Towards post-post-war thought A Prof. Grimshaw (Canterbury): Ruptured Romans: the Pauline turn Kelly (Latrobe): What an aleatory war!	Towards post-post-war thought Sharpe: how not to philosophise with a prophetic-eschatological hammer AProf. Rundell: "we begin in the mess": forebearance, not bad faith
5:20-5:40	Closing discussion led by keynotes	Closing discussion led by keynotes