

Friday, 3.10.2014

Time	Event	Location
9.30 – 10.00	Welcome address	Forum Scientiarum, Doblerstraße 33
10.00 – 11.00	Joseph Walsh (Kent): "How to Resist Global Evolutionary Debunking Arguments"
11.00 – 11.15	Coffee break
11.15 – 12.15	Carel van Schaik (Zürich): „The moral faculty as a biological adaptation“
12.15 – 13.45	Lunch	Al Dente
13.45 – 14.45	Matthew Braddock (Martin, Tennessee): „Evolutionary debunking arguments: Can moral realists explain reliability“	Forum Scientiarum
14.45 – 15.00	Coffee break
15.00 – 16.00	Silvan Wittwer (Edinburgh): "Evolutionary Debunking and Reliability Challenges"
16.00 ~ 17.00	Walk through the old town	start at Forum Scientiarum
18.15 – 19.30	Thomas Grundmann (Cologne): „The (Dubious) Epistemology of Evolutionary Debunking Arguments“	Burse, Room X, Bursagasse 1
19.30	Dinner	Gasthaus Forelle

Saturday, 4.10.2014

Time	Event	Location
9.30 – 10.30	Hanno Sauer (Tilburg): „Educated Moral Intuitions“	Forum Scientiarum
10.30 – 10.45	Coffee break
10.45 – 11.45	Markus Christen (Zürich): „The neuroscience of ethics as a basis for moral behavior interventions? An assessment of moral enhancement“
11.45 – 13.15	Lunch	Wurstküche
13.15 – 14.15	Peter Königs (Tübingen): „From moral error theory to practical error theory“	Forum Scientiarum
14.15 – 14.30	Coffee break
14.30 – 15.30	Christian Illies (Bamberg): „Why metaethical objectivism is compatible with evolutionary explanations of moral judgments“
15.30 – 15.45	Coffee break
15.45 – 16.45	Bahadır Eker (Tübingen): „Debunking a Quasi-Bunk: Street's Attack on Quasi-Realism“
16.45 – 17.00	Coffee break
17.00 – 18.00	Thomas Sattig (Tübingen): „Debunking and Ontology“	Neckarmüller
18.30	Dinner	