

HAPPINESS ANCIENT AND MODERN: REFLECTIONS ON THE HISTORY OF ETHICS Nov 7 & 8, 2014

The University of Pennsylvania,
Department of Philosophy
402 Claudia Cohen Hall
249 South 36th St., Philadelphia, PA 19104

Friday 7 Nov

- 3 pm KEYNOTE ADDRESS
Terence Irwin, University of Oxford:
"Happiness and the Good: does Aristotle's Ethics rest on a mistake?"
- 5 pm reception

Saturday 8 November

- 9:45 am coffee & light breakfast
- 10:30 am Hendrik Lorenz, Princeton University
"Natural Goals of Actions in Aristotle"
- 12:00 break for lunch
- 2:00 pm Fay Edwards, Washington University, St. Louis:
"Saying "No" to Meat, Artichokes and Sex:
Porphyry's Practical Ethics"
- 3:30 refreshments
- 4:00 pm David Brink, University of California, San Diego
"Normative Perfectionism and the Kantian Tradition"

co-sponsored by the Greater Philadelphia Philosophy Consortium and the Department of Classical Studies at the University of Pennsylvania
for information contact Susan Sauvé Meyer (smeyer@phil.upenn.edu)