Call For Abstracts

Nagoya Forum on the Philosophy of Engineering 2027

Engineering, Science, and the Forms of Knowledge: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives

Co-organised by the Society for Engineering Ethics at Nagoya Institute of Technology*

Date 20-21, February, 2027

Location Nagoya Institute of Technology (Nagoya, Japan)
& ZOOM Online (Hybrid)

Keynote Speaker:
Yusuke Nagato (The University of Osaka)

Topics Include:

- Engineering knowledge and the history of philosophy
- Engineering knowledge and scientific knowledge
- Engineering ethics and design responsibility
- Risk, safety, maintenance, and infrastructure
- Kantian, neo-Kantian, and post-Kantian approaches to science and engineering
- Engineering education and philosophical reflection
- East Asian and global perspectives on engineering

- Abstract deadline: 15 December 2026
- Notification: 23 December 2026
- Abstract: 300–500 words in English, Word or PDF
- Presentation: 35 minutes + 15 minutes of discussion

Please send an abstarct to: philoethica@gmail.com

Language: English / Organiser: Tadahiro OOTA

For more details please visit the website:
https://x.gd/ryKdH