

Call for Papers

Third Annual Conference of the Pennsylvania Circle of Ancient Philosophy

The Pennsylvania Circle of Ancient Philosophy (PCAP) is pleased to announce its third annual conference, to be held at Pennsylvania State University, April 24-26, 2015.

PCAP aims to promote a community of local scholars dedicated to the study of ancient philosophy. Our annual conference provides a venue for graduate students and faculty to share new research and works in progress that cut across a variety of disciplinary and methodological approaches.

Keynote Speakers:

Walter Brogan (Villanova University)

Susan Sauvé-Meyer (University of Pennsylvania)

Special Event:

Panel on Plato on the Limits of Human Life, Sara Brill (Fairfield University)

We welcome submissions on any topic in Ancient Greek and Roman philosophy. Additionally, we also welcome inquiries from anyone interested in serving as a respondent or in becoming part of PCAP.

Submission Deadline: Monday, March 2, 2015

Eligibility for Submission: Submissions will be accepted from graduate students, faculty, and independent scholars working in the state of Pennsylvania.

Submission Instructions: Abstracts of 400-500 words should be prepared for blind review and accompanied by a separate cover page listing the author's name, affiliation, and contact information. We welcome panel proposals as well as individual papers. All submissions are to be submitted electronically (PDF or Word) to PennAncient@gmail.com.

In order to encourage informed dialogue, each participant will be requested to submit his or her paper and read the papers of other participants in advance. Full papers suitable for a twenty-minute presentation (no more than 3000 words) will be required no later than Monday, April 13, 2015.
