

Persons and Community

28th February 2015

Blackfriars Hall, St Giles, Oxford

1:15 p.m.	Welcome and introduction Ralph Weir and Mikolaj Slawkowski-Rode
1:30 p.m.	Michael Inwood 'Self-consciousness and Other Selves in Hegel'
2:30 p.m.	Jacob Burda 'The Importance of Buddhist Ethics in the Age of Subjectivity'
3:00 p.m.	Robbert-Jan Winters 'The Rule of Law as a Moral Practice'
3:30 p.m.	Break with tea, coffee, and refreshments
4:00 p.m.	Dechen Rochard 'Being Kind to Oneself Means Being Kind to Others: A Buddhist Approach to Rational Self-Interest, Selflessness, and Altruism'
5:00 p.m.	Agata Filipowicz 'The Theory of Many Persons, or the Plural Self'
5:30 p.m.	Break with tea and coffee
5:50 p.m.	Nikolas Prassas 'Empathy and the Constitution of the Self in the Philosophy of Edith Stein'
6:20 p.m.	Ferenc Hörcher 'The Concept of the Person: A Catholic-Aristotelian, Practical Philosophical Account'
7:20 p.m.	Drinks reception
8:00 p.m.	Conference end

