

Call for Abstracts

Feminist Philosophy Workshop

9 October 2015
University of Hamburg

DEADLINE for submissions: 23 August 2015

Invited Speaker: Anca Gheaus (Sheffield)
Title: "Feminism and Basic Income"

We warmly invite submission of abstracts for papers to be presented at our upcoming workshop on Feminist Philosophy. We intend this workshop to provide an opportunity to highlight contemporary feminist scholarship, and to bring early career researchers, established scholars, and students together to share their ideas. We welcome abstracts from any area of feminist philosophy, and hope to explore a wide range of topics and approaches.

Please send abstracts of up to 500 words (in either Word or PDF format) to amanda.cawston@cantab.net. Please include your name, contact details, and affiliation (if applicable) in the body of your email, and ensure your abstracts are prepared for anonymous review. Talks should be about 30min long and will be followed by brief discussion. Successful applicants will be contacted by August 30.

Presenters should be prepared to obtain their own funding, though we will be able to award two bursaries of 200€ each to help with costs associated with presenting at the workshop (and can include childcare or other accessibility related costs). If you would like to be considered for one of these bursaries, please include a brief letter with your submission that outlines your needs. These bursaries are generously supported by the University of Hamburg's Frauenförderfonds.

Registration will be free, but places will be limited. Please send an email to amanda.cawston@cantab.net to reserve a place. While not required, we highly recommend pre-distribution of papers, slides, or other presentation material. To that end, we will make a shared Dropbox folder available to workshop participants and presenters.

Location and Accessibility:

The workshop will take place in the Philosophy Faculty (10th floor of Von-Melle-Park 6, 20146 Hamburg).
