

CALL FOR PAPERS

The 23rd Annual Philosophy Graduate Student Conference
in Remembrance of May 4th, 1970

Papers on all Philosophical Topics Welcome

Submission Deadline January 18, 2016

Keynote Speaker:

Susan Haack

Distinguished Professor in the Humanities, Cooper Senior
Scholar in Arts and Science,
Professor of Philosophy, and
Professor of Law at the University of Miami

“Credulity and Circumspection: Epistemological Character and the Ethics of Belief”

- Reading length of paper should not exceed thirty minutes, and papers should not exceed 3500 words. Submissions, including a 150 word abstract, should be prepared for blind review. To submit please fill out this form: Submission Form (in which case an email will be sent with instructions on paper submission) or go to philosophy.kent.edu/philconf.
- Papers on any philosophical topic and from any research tradition in philosophy are welcome.
- Local transportation and limited overnight accommodations with Kent State graduate students offered (available accommodations will be allocated first-come, first-served).
- Buffet lunch, including vegetarian options, will be provided free of charge for all attendees.
- Those interested in commenting on a paper or moderating a session should e-mail a statement of interest to ksuphilconf@gmail.com.