

Virtue and Happiness: a summer seminar

June 12–17, 2016

Moreau Seminary
University of Notre Dame

Sponsored by the Virtue, Happiness, and Meaning of Life Project and institutional partner the Jacques Maritain Center.
Made possible by a generous grant from the John Templeton Foundation.

For early career researchers and advanced doctoral students in Philosophy, Psychology, and Theology/Religious Studies.
Tuition, lodging, and meals included. Travel up to $500 reimbursed.

Application deadline: January 15, 2016

Owen Flanagan

The Four Sprouts of Virtue in Mengzi
Destructive Emotions?

Jennifer A. Frey

Action, Practical Reason, and Happiness

Darcia Narvaez

Neurobiology and Moral Development
Ecological Virtue and Organic Morality

Michael S. Sherwin

Virtue Transformed: A Christian Account of Human Excellence
On Love and Happiness: An Introduction to a Renewed Understanding of Christian Charity and Heavenly Beatitude

Candace Vogler

Self-Transcendence and Virtue

Paul T. P. Wong

The Role of Self-Transcendence in Virtue and Happiness

virtue.uchicago.edu/summer-seminar-2016