

Call for Papers

Western Canadian Philosophical Association

53rd Annual Meeting October 28-30, 2016, University of Alberta

in conjunction with

The Inaugural Meeting of the Canadian Society for Environmental Philosophy/ Société Canadienne de Philosophie Environnementale

Keynote Speakers:

Thomas Hurka

University Professor and Jackman Distinguished Chair in Philosophical Studies,
U. Toronto

Jeannette Armstrong

Canada Research Chair in Okanagan Indigenous Philosophy,
UBC-Okanagan

Submissions of colloquium papers from all areas of philosophy are welcome. Colloquium papers should be no more than 4,000 words (text), presentable in 25-30 minutes to allow for commentary and discussion, and prepared for blind review.

Please submit papers as electronic attachments (.docx, .doc, .rtf, .txt, or .pdf) to an email providing your name, e-mail address, academic affiliation (if any), and a brief abstract (no more than 150 words). The WCPA and CSEP/SCPE will each be awarding a Student Essay Prize, so if you are a student please indicate this in the body of your e-mail.

Proposals for panels or symposia are also welcome. Please submit the proposed title, abstracts of presentations, and names of all participants.

Colloquium papers and panels/symposia on environmental topics may be submitted for presentation either on the WCPA main program or the program of the CSEP/SCPE, but will automatically be considered for presentation on both programs.

Please send submissions to wcpacsep@ualberta.ca by July 15, 2016 (Extended).
Conference information can be found at <https://sites.google.com/a/ualberta.ca/wcpa2016/>.