

Call for Papers: 3rd Annual University of Connecticut Graduate Conference

The Philosophy Graduate Student Association at the University of Connecticut invite submissions to our 3rd annual philosophy graduate conference. The conference will be held 5 November 2016. Our keynote will be Ted Sider (Rutgers). We welcome submissions in all areas of philosophy, but particularly encourage submissions that engage with the work of the keynote.

Deadline: 1 September 2016. We will endeavor to let everyone know whether or not they have been accepted by the end of September.

Length: All submissions should be presentable in 30 minutes. As such, we ask that all submissions be 3500 words or less (excluding footnotes and references).

Submission: Submissions should be prepared for blind review. A separate cover letter with your name, institution, email, paper title, word count, and abstract is required. Please submit all documents as PDFs.

Contact: Send submissions and any questions to uconnphilosophygrad@gmail.com