

THE PANTC* philosophy reading group

presents a conference on

Bioethics and the Philosophy of Medicine

July 28 – 30, 2016

Park Hall 280 SUNY Buffalo, North Campus

Free and Open to the Public

Keynotes: Posthumous Harm & The Metaphysics of Pregnancy

Thursday, July 28

- 11:00am "You are Probably Not Really A Specieist" Travis Timmerman
- 1:00pm "There are No Internal Moralities" Jake Monaghan
- 2:15pm "Suicide and Assisted Dying" Phil Reed
- 3:30pm "Olson's Problem Concerning the Persistence of a Human Being" Yuichi Minemura
- 4:45pm "Controversial Cases of Identity" James Delaney

With Thanks to Steve Wear and the Romanell Fund for Sponsoring the Conference

Friday, July 29

- 9:30am "Cell Free Fetal DNA for Non-Invasive Pre-Natal Testing: No Pain, No Risk, Quick and Convenient. Have We Greased the Slippery Slope?" Harvey Berman
- 10:45am "Persons, Organism and Death" John Lizza
- 12:45pm "Harming by Failing to Benefit" Neil Feit
- 2:00pm "The Moral Agency of Virtual Surgery Simulators: A Case for Moral Agency by Proxy" Geert Craenen
- 3:15pm "A Consequentialist Evaluation of Abortion: Maximizing, Satisficing, and Suction Curettaging" Steve Kershnar
- 4:30pm Keynote: "Posthumous Harm" David Boonin

Saturday, July 30

- 9:30am "An Addendum to Buss: Health as the Cure to Responsibility" David Limbaugh
- 10:45am "Metaphysical Positions for Trans People" Catherine Nolan
- 12:45pm "Health, Moral Status, and a Moderate Speciesism" David Hershenov
- 2:00pm "Twin Inc." Rose Hershenov
- 3:15pm Keynote: "The Metaphysics of Pregnancy" Elselijn Kingma
- 5:30pm "The Metaphysics of the Embryo" Barry Smith