Call for Papers

Papers should be on hope, despair, and related themes, including how they bear on social/political philosophy, moral philosophy, psychology and philosophy of religion. Submissions should be anonymized and take the form of a 500-750 word abstract. Accepted papers should be suitable for approximately 40 minute presentations. Authors selected will be offered travel and housing for the workshop which will be held in conjunction with the world premiere of our $10,000 prizewinning "Hope on Stage" play at the Hangar Theater. For more information about the Call for Papers, contact Alex Esposito at ave9@cornell.edu

Email abstracts to: hopeoptimism17@gmail.com. In the body of the e-mail, please include the following information:
