Philosophies of Difference group (PoD) is a Melbourne based group of scholars working continental philosophy and interested in problems that have been marginal to the dominant traditions of Western thought. We engage with approaches including: critical philosophy of race, decolonial thought, feminist theory, Indigenous studies, philosophy of disability, philosophy of nature, queer theory, and trans philosophy. We especially welcome participation from women, people of colour, and other minority groups.

Building 9, Level 1 Room 24
RMIT University City Campus, Corner Bowen & Franklin
Streets (Wheelchair accessible)

This is a free event, all welcome and no registration required.

The Communication, Politics and Culture Research Centre, CPC, is a partner of PoD Seminar Series #3
