

CURRENT TRENDS AND CONTROVERSIES IN SOCIAL AND POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY
Sponsored by Monash University Philosophy Department's Focus Program on Belief, Value, and Mind
Caulfield Campus
20-21 July 2017

Thursday 20 July 2017

3:30 pm-4:30 pm	Linda Barclay (Monash) "A Dignitarian Approach to Disability"
5:00 pm-6:00 pm	Julia Driver (WUStL) "Schadenfreude"

Friday 21 July 2017

10:00 am-11:00 am	John Thrasher (Monash) "Good Norms and Bad: What Studying Social Norms Can Tell us About Morality"
11:30 am-12:30 pm	Connie Rosati (Arizona) "Welfare and Rational Fit"
12:30 pm-2:00 pm	LUNCH
2:00 pm-3:00 pm	Toby Handfield (Monash) "Honor and Morality"
3:30 pm-4:30 pm	Katie Steele (ANU) "Making sense of supererogation"
5:00 pm-6:00 pm	David Sobel (Syracuse) "Problems and Prospects for Libertarian Self-Ownership"

With thanks to the Arts Faculty at Monash University and the Philosophy Department at Princeton University