

Call for Papers

Illinois Philosophical Association

October 21-22, 2017
Northern Illinois University
DeKalb, IL

Keynote Address:
Joseph Keim Campbell
Washington State University

Special Sunday morning session with APA Executive Director
Amy Ferrer on the state of philosophy in Illinois

Papers in any area of philosophy are welcome
Papers on the work of Dr. Joseph Campbell are especially encouraged

Papers must be prepared for blind review and should not exceed 3000 words in length.
Abstracts (also required) should not exceed 150 words. Name, affiliation, contact information, title of paper, and abstract should be included in the body of the email to act as a contact information sheet.

Submission Deadline: July 15, 2017

Electronic Submissions Only:

Save your document as either a .doc/.docx, .rtf file, or .pdf file.
Submit as an email attachment to the Secretary of the IPA, Jonelle DePetro, at:

`jmdepetro@niu.edu`

Addendum:

On Friday, October 20th, The Philosophy Department at NIU is hosting a Kapitan Conference to honor the late Tomis Kapitan. This conference is open to the public and all IPA participants are welcome. Additional information will be provided on the IPA website.

IPA website: <http://illinoisphilosophicalassociation.org>