

THIRD ANNUAL BOVAY WORKSHOP

ETHICAL RISK MANAGEMENT: THEORY AND PRACTICE

SPONSORED BY: THE BOVAY CHAIR AND TEXAS A&M SCHOOL OF LAW

CHAIR AND ORGANIZER: DR. MARTIN PETERSON

CONTRIBUTOR AND ORGANIZER: DR. SUSAN FORTNEY

MONDAY, APRIL 9TH, RUDDER 502

8:30-8:45 am

Coffee

8:45-9:45 am

Todd Henderson (University of Chicago Law School) "The Promise of Peril and Compliance" Commentator: Susan Fortney (Texas A&M School of Law)

9:45-10:45 am

Sven Ove Hansson (KTH Royal Institute of Technology) "How to Perform an Ethical Risk Analysis" Commentator: Jeryl Mumpower (Texas A&M Bush School of Government and Public Service)

10:45-11:15 am

Coffee

11:15 am - 12:15 pm

Neelke Doorn (TU Delft) "An Examination of the Ethical Principles Underlying the Dutch System for Managing Flood Risks" Commentator: Debjyoti Banerjee (Texas A&M Mechanical Engineering)

12:15-1:30 pm

Lunch

1:30-2:15 pm

Susanne Burri (London School of Economics) "Who Should Bear the Costs of Morally Permissible Risk Imposition?" Commentator: Linda Radzik (Texas A&M Philosophy)

2:15-3:00 pm

Orri Stefansson (Institute for Future Studies) "Bad News for the Precautionary Principle" Commentator: Martin Peterson (Texas A&M Philosophy)

3:00-3:30 pm

Coffee

3:30-4:30 pm

Daniel Steel (University of British Columbia) "Precaution and Fairness: A Framework for Distributing Costs of Protection from Environmental Risks" Commentator: Richard Woodward (Texas A&M Agricultural Economics)

4:30-5:30 pm

David B. Resnik (National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences) "The Role of Intuition in Risk/Benefit Decision Making in Human Subjects Research" Commentator: Matthew Braddock (University of Tennessee)

6:00 pm

Dinner