

ULB-EASt Research Workshop

LANDSCAPES, PILGRIMAGES AND
THE CREATION, REPRESENTATION &
TRANSFORMATION OF THE "SACRED"

When: May 17–18, 2018

Where: Université libre de Bruxelles, Belgium

This workshop invites scholars in the field of Religious Studies, Philosophy, and Asian Studies to discuss the nature of sacred sites in the world. We will discuss why a place is considered to be sacred and what the philosophico-religious narratives that "consecrate" them are. Papers on these topics in an East Asian Context are particularly welcomed. For more information, contact Takeshi at Takeshi.Morisato@ulb.ac.be.
