

ROMANO GUARDINI PAST AND PRESENT: THE HUMAN PERSON, ENCOUNTER, CULTURE FIFTY YEARS AFTER THE DEATH OF THIS BRILLIANT THINKER

1968

2018

Call for Papers and International Congress on the meaning and contemporary significance of the thought of Romano Guardini, focusing on his work on philosophical, theological and cultural issues. This Call for Papers and International Congress is organized by the Faculty of Philosophy, Regina Apostolorum Pontifical Athenaeum, Rome, Italy, to offer a space for academic interchange and creative dialogue.

WHO CAN SUBMIT AN ABSTRACT

- ▶ University professors and academics
- ▶ Professors of Institutes of Religious Studies
- ▶ Graduate students in philosophy, theology, pedagogy, and the human sciences

THEME AREAS

We welcome submissions for conference presentations in the following areas:

- ▶ Area 1: Liturgy, Ecclesiology, Spirituality
- ▶ Area 2: The human Person, Philosophical Anthropology and Ethics
- ▶ Area 3: Philosophy of religion.
- ▶ Area 4: Methodology of Guardini's thought: Polarity & Weltanschauung
- ▶ Area 5: Culture and Christianity
- ▶ Area 6: Pedagogy and Christian education

SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS

Please submit an abstract of your paper of no more than 600 words (as a Word or PDF document). Submissions may be in English or Italian.

Visit the Athenaeum's web site for further information.

Facoltà di Filosofia Ateneo Pontificio Regina Apostolorum
Via degli Aldobrandeschi, 190 - 00163 Roma
Tel. (+39) 06 91689817 Email: info.filosofia@upra.org
www.upra.org

