

“A Hidden Art”

Kant and Fichte on the Imagination

Workshop, Monday 8 October, 2018

Institute of Philosophy, University of Leuven
Salons, Kardinaal Mercierplein 2 - 3000 Leuven

Organizers: Karin de Boer and David W. Wood

Info: <https://hiw.kuleuven.be/eng/events/fichte-conference/index.html>

Contact: david.wood@kuleuven.be

12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-13.50	Chair: David W. Wood (KU Leuven) Moran Godess Riccitelli (University of Potsdam) From Natural Beauty to Theology: Imagination, Moral Ideal, and God in Kant's Third Critique
13.50-14.40	Selda Salman (Istanbul Kültür University/Mimar Sinan Fine Arts University) Fichte's Power of Imagination: bridging the Hiatus between Kant's Theoretical and Practical Philosophy
14.40-15.10	Coffee
15.10-16.00	Chair: Elise Frketich (KU Leuven) David W. Wood (KU Leuven) Fichte's Philosophical Genius – in Theory and Practice
16.00-16.50	Esma Kayar (Independent Scholar, Istanbul) Fichte, Modality, and Imagination
16.50-17.20	Coffee
17.20-18.20	Chair: Karin de Boer (KU Leuven) Julia Jansen (Husserl Archives, Institute of Philosophy, KU Leuven) Concerning the 'Hiddenness' of the Imagination in Kant
19.00	Dinner