

Workshop on Intellectual Autonomy, Epistemic Paternalism, and Epistemic Authority

February 5-6, 2019

Faculty of Philosophy and Letters, Autonomous University of Madrid

Rooms:

- Salón de Actos (Tuesday 9:30 - 13:15)
- Sala de Conferencias (Tuesday 14:45 - 18:30; Wednesday 9:30 - 18:30)

	Tuesday, 5th of February	Wednesday, 6th of February
9:30 - 10:40	Alessandra Tanesini (Cardiff University) - Epistemic feelings and the intellectual vices of hyper-autonomy and heteronomy	Emily Sullivan & Mark Alfano (Delft University of Technology) - Network-first epistemology
10:40 - 10:50	Coffee break	Coffee break
10:50 - 12:00	Marion Vorms (University Paris 1 / IHPST) - Expert advice for decision-making: the moving boundary between informing and instructing	Jeroen de Ridder (VU Amsterdam) - Algorithm-based illusions of understanding
12:05 - 13:15	Xintong Wei (University of St. Andrews & Stirling) - Intellectual autonomy, expert testimony and the a priori	Fernando Broncano-Berrocal (Autonomous University of Madrid) - Duties of epistemic care
13:15 - 14:45	Lunch	Lunch
14:45 - 15:55	Shane Ryan (Nazarbayev University) - Autonomy and reflection	Fleur Jongepier (Radboud University Nijmegen) - Do algorithms know us better than we know ourselves?
15:55 - 16:05	Coffee break	Coffee break
16:05 - 17:15	Javier González de Prado (UNED) - Humble, but not too humble: disagreement as a threat to epistemic autonomy	Josh Habgood-Coote (University of Bristol) - Group inquiry and epistemic objectification
17:20 - 18:30	Heather Spradley (Harvard University) - Escaping epistemic bubbles: defending an epistemic norm of inquiry	Jesús Vega-Encabo (Autonomous University of Madrid) - Intellectual autonomy matters

Presentation time: between 35-40 minutes. Q&A: 35-30 minutes