

---

CALL FOR PAPERS

---

a graduate student conference on

THE LEGACY OF ANSCOMBE & HER OXBRIDGE CONTEMPORARIES

at the Catholic University of America

The "Oxbridge" philosophers made important contributions to the philosophy of language, action theory, philosophy of mind, ethics, and political philosophy. On the hundredth anniversary of Elizabeth Anscombe's birth, we take this opportunity to reflect on her legacy and that of her contemporaries.

This conference welcomes papers on a variety of topics related to the work of Elizabeth Anscombe and her Oxbridge contemporaries (e.g. Peter Geach, Anthony Kenny, and Philippa Foot) and their influence on other philosophers. We also invite papers that focus on Wittgenstein's direct influence on the Oxbridge philosophers.

Submit abstracts of 200-400 words as a PDF to cua.gradconference@gmail.com by December 15. Please include name and institution only in body of email to facilitate blind review.

You will be notified of admission by January 7.

February 22-23, 2019

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Candace Vogler, The University of Chicago

