

TARTU WORKSHOP IN ANCIENT PHILOSOPHY

FRIDAY (14.12)

9.30-10.45

Liva Rotkale (University of Latvia):
"Aristotle's God as the Principle on which Heaven and Nature Depend (Metaphysics Lambda 7)"

11.00-12.15

Vilius Bartninkas (Vilnius University IIRPS/Cambridge University): "Plato's Ideal of God-likeness and Its Contemporary Readers"

13.45-15.00

Toomas Lott (University of Tartu):
"The Value of Thinking for Yourself in Plato's Socratic Dialogues"

15.15-16.30

Marke Ahonen (University of Helsinki):
"Galen on Aplêstia"

16.45-18.00

Gösta Grönroos (Stockholm University):
"Aristotle's Sentimentalist Ethical Virtue"

SATURDAY (15.12)

10.00-11.15

Sean Coughlin (Humboldt University):
"Kinds of Cause in Some Hellenistic Writers on Biology and Medicine"

11.30-12.45

Riin Sirkel (University of Vermont):
"Porphyry on Justice Towards Animals: Two Puzzles"

14.15-15.30

Mark Hallap (University of Western Ontario):
"Character and Content in Dissoi Logoi 4:
A Thought Experiment with Initiates"

15.45-17.00

Ronja Hildebrandt (Humboldt University):
"The Telos-Argument in Aristotle's Protrepticus
and its Significance for the Function Argument in the Nicomachean Ethics"

17.15-18.30

Miira Tuominen (University of Jyväskylä):
"Why Do We Need to Abstain from Harming Animals? Justice in Porphyry's On abstinence"

