

Freedom and Autonomy Conference 2019

Birkbeck College, University of London

Thursday, 6th June

---

Room B04

43 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PD

- 9.30                      Arrival
- 9.45                      'Beyond Adaptive Preferences: Rethinking Women's Complicity in Their Own Subordination'
Charlotte Knowles
Assistant Professor, University of Groningen
- 11.15                     Break
- 11.30                     'A Puzzle About Epistemic Manipulation'
Chris Lernpass
Doctoral Research Student, Australian National University
- 1                            Lunch break
- 2                            'Coercion Without Incapacitation'
William Tadros
Doctoral Research Student, Harvard University
- 3.30                     Break
- 4                            Keynote Talk: 'Effective Intentions and Autonomy: A Social-Relational Analysis'
Natalie Stoljar
Associate Professor, McGill University
- 5.30                     End

Friday, 7th June

---

Room B04

43 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PD

- 9.30                   Arrival
- 9.45                   'Outline of an Autonomous Choice Theory of Rights'
Elias Moser
Postdoctoral Researcher, University of Graz
- 11.15                  Break
- 11.30                  'The Necessary Conditions For Autonomy That Make Theories Substantive'
Andréa Wilson
Doctoral Research Student, University of Massachusetts Amherst
- 1                        Lunch break
- 2                        'Negative Freedom and Its Measurement'
Ian Carter
Professor, University of Pavia
&
Hillel Steiner
Professor Emeritus, University of Manchester
- 3.30                  Break
- 4                        'What Is Paternalistic Intervention?'
Stephanie Sheintul
Doctoral Research Student, University of Wisconsin Madison
- 5.30                  End

---

This conference has been generously funded by the Mind Association and the Birkbeck
Philosophy Department.

