The Mountain-Plains Philosophy Conference

has been holding small, friendly, and philosophically exciting annual meetings since 1947.

Keynote speakers have included such prominent figures as Robert Audi, Lynne Rudder Baker, Tom L. Beauchamp, Simon Blackburn, Robert Brandom, Albert Casullo, Eva Dadlez, Hubert Dreyfus, Ronald Giere, Charlie Huenemann, Robert Kane, William Lycan, James Rachels, Richard Rorty, John Searle, Ted Sider, Matthias Steup, and Avrum Stroll.

During the many years of its existence the meeting has grown from a purely regional conference for philosophers from Colorado, Kansas, Nevada, Oklahoma, Utah, and Wyoming to include participants from other parts of the United States and from around the world.
