

Building Better Epistemic Networks Workshop

Date and venue

Thursday 5 and Friday 6 September

Australian Catholic University

4th floor, 250 Victoria Parade

East Melbourne

philevents.org/event/show/71310

Schedule

Thursday
1000-1130	Methods colloquium (presenters: Quintana, Olsson, Devitt)
1130-1200	Coffee
1210-1300	Lexing Xie, "Networks of Attention, Online Discussions, and Academic Influence"
1300-1430	Lunch
1430-1520	Robert Simpson, "The Expertise Problem and Higher Education Governance"
1530-1620	Remco Heesen, "Changing Peer Review to Open Science"
1630-1720	Allison Morgan, "Faculty hiring and the spread of scientific ideas"

Friday
0920-0950	Toby Handfield, "What will it take for reputation to sustain cooperation?"
0950-1035	Sarita Rosenstock, "What and how we can learn from epistemic network simulations"
1035-1100	Coffee
1100-1145	Erik Olsson, "Why Bayesian Agents Polarize"
1145-1230	Kevin Zollman, "Wisdom of the crowds and information cascades: modeling the boundary"
1230-1400	Lunch
1400-1450	Ignacio Ojea Quintana, "Schelling Segregation in Online Social Networks"
1500-1550	Colin Klein, "Online Conspiracy Theories: A multi-method approach"
1600-1650	Kate Devitt, "Building epistemic virtues in communities with an evidence-based digital-physical social network"

Registration and inquiries: toby.handfield@monash.edu