

A Workshop on German Aesthetics
Fordham University, Lincoln Center Campus
Lowenstein Building, Plaza View Room (12th Floor)
Wednesday June 26, 2019

Session I – Chair: Michael Begun (Fordham)

10:00 – Samantha Matherne (Harvard University)
“Rethinking Kantian Aesthetic Normativity”

11:30 – Wiebke Deimling (Clark University)
“Kant’s Theory of Tragedy”

1:00 – Lunch Break

Session II – Chair: Daryl Tress (Fordham)

2:30 – Melissa Zinkin (SUNY Binghamton)
“Aesthetic Judgment, the Generation of Concepts, and Cognitive Mastery in Kant”

4:00 – Jay Bernstein (New School for Social Research)
“Kant and Adorno on Mind and World: From Wild Beauties to Spiral Jetty”

Sponsored by the Fordham Philosophy Department’s German Philosophy Group

Contact: Reed Winegar (bwinegar@fordham.edu)