

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Yearbook of Phenomenology

PHENOMENOLOGY AND THE POLITICAL

An imprint of the press Gam-e-no (New Step) Publishing Corporation is intending to publish the first “Yearbook of Phenomenology” in Iran in partnership with Iranian Political Science Association. We Invite every interested researcher to contribute to this edited book volume. As a first step, authors should send abstracts (in Persian or English) no later than September 22, 2019 to this address: hmalekzade@alumni.ut.ac.ir or hmalekzade@gmail.com.

Possible topics include (but are not limited to):

Transcendental phenomenology and Politics	Phenomenology, State and Civil Society	Phenomenology, Political Power and Authority
Phenomenology and Political Epistemology	Phenomenology and Political Community	Phenomenology and The Political Body
Phenomenology and The Political Violence	Phenomenology, Ethics and Politics	Phenomenology, Epistemology and Political Epistemology
Phenomenological Experience and being Political	The Possibility of a Political science	Life-World and The Possibility of we, as Political Being
Phenomenology and being Different	Phenomenology and Political Foundationalism

. Notes:

If your abstract is accepted, your final paper will be due by March 10, 2020. Authors may submit by email or by mailing a printed version and an accompanying Word file on a CD to: 6 Gam-e-Noe Publishing Center, no.7, Flat 12, Niro, Shariati, Tehran, Iran.

Essays in English will be translated into Persian by our Editorial Team and will be published in Persian.

Essay must not be more than 9,500 words (including abstract, footnotes/endnotes, bibliography, etc.).

