

The Traveling Early Modern Philosophy Organization presents

TEMPO 2020

A Two-Day Conference
Washington, D.C.
April 24-25, 2020

Submissions welcome on any aspect of Modern philosophy (roughly Montaigne through Mill). Submissions on British philosophy after Hume are particularly encouraged. Additionally, papers treating the Cambridge Platonists or the relationship of Hume to Kant will be given special consideration for plenary panels.

Keynote address: "Metaphysics and Early Modern Misogyny" by Julie Walsh (Wellesley College)
Panel on Mary Shepherd by Antonia LoLordo (University of Virginia), David Landy (San Francisco State University), and Louise Daoust (Eckerd College)

More information can be found at the conference website: <http://tempo-conference.net>
Submit 300-500 word abstracts for anonymous review at <http://tempo-conference.net/submit>
Deadline for submissions: February 8th, 2020 (Notification of acceptance by February 22nd.)

Please direct questions to Richard Fry (richard.fry@rutgers.edu)