

Iranian Yearbook of Phenomenology

Call for Abstracts

PHENOMENOLOGY AND THE Social

Iranian Society for Phenomenology is intending to publish the 2nd Issue of “the Iranian Yearbook of Phenomenology” in Iran, In Partnership with Iranian Political Science Association and Gam-e-nou(New Step) Publisher. We Invite every interested researcher to contribute to this edited book volume. authors should Submit Their Final Drft (in Persian or English) no later than September 21, 2020 to the Yearbook:(www.iranianyearbookofphenomenology.ir )

Possible topics include (but are not limited to):

Phenomenology of morality and the Problem of the Common	Phenomenology and cognition	Empathy, cognition and sociality
Experience, Consciousness and being social	Experience, Embodiment, and sociality	We-Experience and the Problem of Social Identity
The transition from solipsism to inter-subjectivity	Social Construction of Reality	Ego, Alter ego and being social
Memory and the Problem of Social Identity	The subject, object, and inter-subjective basis of the social	Life-World and The Possibility of we
Phenomenology and being Different	We" in common life"	We, others, and the mechanisms of collective identity
Love and Sociality	Phenomenology and the Problem of Social variety	Actualization of “I”
The Phenomenology of Political Rights	Phenomenology of Social Classes	Tradition and political autonomy
Regionalism and decentralization	State, and non-state-based communism	Phenomenology, Citizenship, and Social Awareness

Notes:

-Essays in English Will be Translated in Persian by our Editorial Team and will be Published in Persian. An open access of English papers will be provided online as soon as the printed version is published.

-your final paper will be due by 2020 September 21

Iranian Society
for Phenomenology

