Call for Papers

We invite papers of high quality in any area of philosophical ethics (metaethics, moral psychology, normative ethics, applied ethics, etc.). Submissions should be no more than 4,000 words and in MS Word format. We welcome papers from all (and only) undergraduate students.

Deadline for paper submission: February 1, 2013

Notification of acceptance: early March 2013

Send submissions prepared for blind review to:

jacksoncenter@coastal.edu

If your paper is accepted for the main program, you will be asked to record a short (max. 20 minutes) video presentation based on your paper. Video presentations will be due by April 1, 2013 and will be made publicly available on the official conference website.

Call for Commentators

We invite volunteers who are willing to provide short (max. 10 minutes) video commentary on papers accepted for the main program. Commentators may be faculty, graduate students, or undergraduate students. If interested, please send an expression of interest to:
