

Animalhouse:

Animals and their Environs

New School for Social Research
Philosophy Department
Graduate Student Conference

Thursday, April 1:

- 10am “Ahab and the Making of an Animal Obscene”
Bryan Doniger (NSSR)
“Furnishing the Nonhuman World”
Britton Edelen (Duke)
- 12pm “Come in to Die: Phenomenology on the Killing Floor”
Stephanie Struble (Stony Brook)
“Can They Suffer? Heidegger and Derrida”
Mariah Partida (U of NM)
- 4pm “Human-nonhuman Animalhouse: Species Extinction and Architectural Type”
Eva Perez de Vega (NSSR)
“The Need for Cross-Disciplinary Communication”
Kristy Ferraro & Nathalie Sommer (Yale)
- 6pm Prof. Cary Wolfe (Rice)
“What Was ‘the Animal?’”
Respondent: Prof. Dominic Pettman (NSSR)

Friday, April 2:

- “A Deweyan Ethic for Human/ Nonhuman Animal Relationships in Prison”
Emily Humbert (SIU - Carbondale)
“From Sensation to Awakening of Spirit”
Devon Coutts (Stony Brook)
- “Selection as an Act and a Process”
Liam Taylor (Yale)
“On the Scientific Legitimacy of Animal Belief”
Paul Kelly (U of Wisconsin - Madison)
- “Towards a Care Epistemological Account of Nonhuman Animals”
Brooke Burns (U of Oregon)
“Animal Ethics and the Notion of the Fellow Creature”
Konstantin Deininger (Munich School of Phil)
- Prof. Lori Gruen (Wesleyan)
“Against Carceral Logics”
Respondent: Prof. Alice Crary (NSSR)