

uncertainty, decision and policy

Department of History and Philosophy of Science, University of Cambridge

10:00 BST	Start
10:15	Katie Steele (Australian National University) Pandemic decision-making and the spread of social risk
11:30	Krister Bykvist (Stockholm University/Institute for Future Studies, Stockholm) How to handle moral trade-offs in pandemics (and other crises)?
12:45	Break
13:30	Martin Peterson (Texas A&M University) COVID-19 and the Precautionary Principle: A convex and well-formed region in an optimally designed conceptual space?
14:45	Break
14:50	Nir Eyal (Rutgers University) Which uncertainties matter? The case of risky COVID vaccine human challenge trials
16:05	Discussion
16:30	End

15 April, 2021

Register online