

NORTH AMERICAN KANT SOCIETY

SOUTHERN STUDY GROUP

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

APRIL 22 - 23, 2022

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY & RELIGION
ROOM 261 & 281, BEAR HALL, RANDALL DR

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: PROFESSOR MARKUS KOHL

EVENT SPONSORS:

ASSOCIATE PROVOST FOR RESEARCH & INNOVATION, UNCW | ASSOCIATE PROVOST FOR STUDENT ENGAGEMENT, ENROLLMENT & RETENTION, UNCW
DEAN OF THE COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES, UNCW | DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY & RELIGION, UNCW | NORTH AMERICAN KANT SOCIETY

NORTH AMERICAN
KANT SOCIETY
SOUTHERN STUDY GROUP

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY & RELIGION, UNC WILMINGTON, ROOM 261 & 281, BEAR HALL

Friday, April 22, 2022

- 1:00-1:15pm Opening & organizational remarks
- 1:15-2:15pm Daniel J. Smith (University of Memphis), “What Happens to Kant’s Race Theory in the 1790s? Towards a New Anthropological Interpretation of Radical Evil”
Chair: Scott James (UNCW)
- 2:15-3:15pm Colin Bradley (Princeton University), “Means, Context, and Property Rights”
Chair: Nicholas Dunn (McGill)
- 3:15-4:15pm Qiannan Li (University of Minnesota-Twin Cities), “A Kantian Account of Political Hopes as Fundamental Hopes” (online)
Chair: Olga Lenczewska (UNCW)
- 4:15-4:30pm Coffee break
- 4:30-5:30pm Student Seminar: How Can Kant Help Us Remain Autonomous in the Era of Technology and Social Media? (Timothy Aylsworth).
Participants not attending are welcome to socialize in the adjacent room.
- 5:30-6:30pm Mike Gregory (University of Groningen), “Does the Kantian State Dominate? Freedom and Majoritarian Rule” (online)
Chair: Olga Lenczewska (UNCW)
- 7:30pm Conference dinner
Cape Fear Seafood Company, 5226 College Rd #5, Wilmington, NC 28412
Carpooling arrangements will be made at 6:30pm.
Please note: dinner is not sponsored by the organizers.

NORTH AMERICAN
KANT SOCIETY
SOUTHERN STUDY GROUP

Saturday, April 23, 2022

- 8:45-9:00am Breakfast & coffee buffet
- 9:00-10:00am Nicholas Dunn (McGill University), "Reflections of Reason: Kant on Practical Judgment"
Chair: Matthew Sayball (UNCW)
- 10:00-11:00am Martina Favaretto (Indiana University-Bloomington), "No Choice when Acting from an Affect? Affects and Kant's Incorporation Thesis"
Chair: Matthew Sayball (UNCW)
- 11:00-12:00 Justin Shaddock (Williams College), "Kant on the Highest Good, Happiness, and Hylomorphism"
Chair: Thomas Schmidt (UNCW)
- 12:00-1:30pm Lunch break (lunch not provided)
- 1:30-3:00pm Special panel: How to Teach Kant Well?
Richard Dean (California State University-LA), "In the Teeth of the Storm: Teaching Chapter 3 of Groundwork"
Timothy Aylsworth (Florida International University), "Shining Like a Jewel: A Helpful Analogy for Teaching Transcendental Idealism"
Chair: Adam Zweber (Stanford & UNCW)
- 3:00-4:00pm Kevin Busch (Davidson College), "Kant's Non-Conceptualist Reply to Hume"
Chair: Robert Smithson (UNCW)
- 4:00-4:30pm Coffee break
- 4:30-6:00pm Keynote Lecture:
Professor Markus Kohl (UNC-Chapel Hill), "Nietzsche versus Kant on the Possibility of Rational Self-Critique"
Chair: Olga Lenczewska (UNCW)