CALL FOR PAPERS

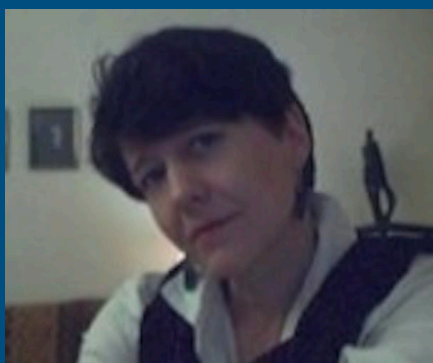

The 29th Annual Philosophy Graduate Student Conference

Papers on all Philosophical Topics Welcome

Submission Deadline: February 7th 2022

Keynote Speaker:

Laura Hengehold

Professor, Case Western Reserve University

Reading length should not exceed thirty minutes, and papers should not exceed 3,000 words. Submissions can consist either of a 3,000-word paper and 150-word abstract or a longer abstract of 500-600 words. These materials should be prepared for blind review and emailed along with a separate cover letter (cover letters should include name, contact info, affiliation, and paper title).

Papers on any philosophical topic are welcome and may include, but are not limited to, philosophy of art, aesthetics, civil disobedience, social & political philosophy, social justice, and critical theory.

The conference will be held in a hybrid format (both in person and virtually, via Teams). The event is free for all and open to the public. For more information on platform access, see website for details and updates.
