

CFA: Humanists in Conversation on Conspiracy

Keynote Speaker: Kathryn Olmsted (UC Davis)

April 15-16, 2022

at the University of Rochester (with a hybrid option for all talks)

- We welcome abstract submissions from all humanities disciplines on the topic of conspiracy theories and misinformation, broadly construed. Potential topics include the potential for rational belief in conspiracy theories, the origin of belief in conspiracy theories, dis/misinformation, and more.
- Abstracts should be between 300-500 words, suitable for presentation to a public audience in 20-25 minutes, and prepared for blind review
- Please submit abstracts via EasyChair at the following link:
<https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=hcc2022>
- Submissions accepted until March 1
- Acceptance notices returned early March
- For more information, please visit our PhilEvent page:
<https://philevents.org/event/show/96526>

Please contact Kelley Annesley with any questions at kannesle@ur.rochester.edu

Funded by Humanities New York