

Call for Papers for an Edited Book:

Philosophical and Educational Thoughts of Sri Aurobindo
Editor: Dr. Desh Raj Sirswal

Respected Faculty/Scholar,

The year-long celebration to commemorate the 150th birth anniversary of Sri Aurobindo begun from 15 August, 2020 in India and all over the world. The Centre has also an intention to commemorate the 150th Birth Anniversary of Sri Aurobindo by various activities including essay competition, seminar, special issues and books on this great thinker. The original, scholarly, and unpublished short articles/ideas are invited from research scholars, teachers and academicians on the given sub-themes with reference to philosophy in India. The ideas will be published online and offline both mode and circulated widely.

Last date of Paper Submission: 30th July, 2022.

Format of Submission: The paper should be typewritten preferably in Times New Roman with 12 font size (English) in MS-Word 2003 to 2010 and between 2500 to 3500 words. They should be typed double spaced with ample margins.

Originality of Work: Only papers which have not been published elsewhere will be considered. Proofs will be sent to the authors if there is sufficient time to do so. An undertaking via a "Forwarding Letter" is submitted alongwith the paper.

Reference Style: For detail information downloads our "CPPIS Manual for Contributors and Reviewers" from below given link:

<http://cppispublications.wordpress.com>

Communication details:

Dr. Desh Raj Sirswal, House No.546 Ground Floor, Sector-41 A,

Chandigarh-160036, Mobile No. 08288883993 , E-mail: cppiskkr@gmail.com

Website: <http://positivephilosophy.webs.com>