

Phenomenology and Critique Conference

November 4 – 6, 2022

Hosted by Loyola University Chicago and Marquette University
With Support from The Loyola Phenomenology Research Group

Conference Format: The conference will have a hybrid format, and participants are welcome to attend either in-person (LUC's Lakeshore Campus) or online. Please take note that some speakers are delivering their papers via Zoom; this is marked on the conference program. The main conference will be on Friday and Saturday from 9am to 6pm, and a graduate workshop will take place on Sunday from 9am to 1pm. Please register for the conference on Eventbrite.

COVID-19: Per Loyola's current regulations, wearing masks is optional for all in-person participants.

Meals: Coffee and snacks will be provided for in-person participants on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Participants will have to procure lunches on their own during these days, and there are several food options near the Lakeshore campus. All registered presenters and participants are welcome to attend the conference dinner in the McCormick Lounge on Friday evening.
