

IS THE SELF EMBODIED?

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE - DAY I

FRIDAY, 6 MAY

10.00-10.30: Welcome & Coffee

10.30-11.15: Lilian Alweiss, “In Search of the Self,” Trinity College Dublin

11.15-11.45: Discussion

11.45-12.15: Aileen C. Luo, “Kant’s ‘I think’: From Disembodied to Embodied Self, and Back Again,” Stanford University (over zoom)

12.15-12.45: Discussion

12.45-14.15: Lunch

14.15-15.00: Danielle Petherbridge, “Embodiment, Self, and Personhood,” University College Dublin

15.00-15.30: Discussion

15.30-16.00: Peter Antich, “A Merleau-Pontian Response to Longuenesse’s I, Me, Mine,” Trinity College (Hartford)

16.00-16.30: Discussion

16.30-17.15: James Jardine, “For me, by me, before others: Husserl on three dimensions of embodied self-experience,” University of Jyväskylä

17.15-17.45: Discussion

IS THE SELF EMBODIED?

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE - DAY II

SATURDAY, 7 MAY

10.00-10:45: Dan Zahavi, “Being at home: Embodied selfhood and communal experience,” University of Copenhagen

10.45-11.15: Discussion

11.15-11.45: Carlota Serrahima, “Psychological Immunity, Bodily Ownership, and Vice Versa,” Universitat de Barcelona

11.45-12.15: Discussion

12.15-13.45: Lunch

13.45-14.15: Paul Matthews, “Hegel, Habit and the Dis/embodied Self,” Boston University

14.15-14.45: Discussion

14.45-15.15: Guido Seddone, “Limits of Embodiment: The Self that cannot be Embodied,” University of Sassari (IT)

15.15-15.45: Discussion

15.45-16.15: Coffee

16.15-17.00: Dermot Moran, “The Embodied Nature of the First-Person Perspective: Phenomenological Reflections,” Boston College

17.00-17.30: Discussion